

IMPROVE YOUR SIGHT SINGING

A HIGHER LEVEL COURSE

Saturday 5th November, 2011

10.30am-4pm

Wombwell

South Yorkshire

Are you one of the many people who enjoy singing but would like to be able to sight sing with greater confidence?

Or are you wanting to acquire some technique and confidence in relation to the sight singing elements of the aural tests in grades 6-8?

Or do you lack confidence in sight reading on your instrument and therefore would benefit from taking a vocal approach to reading and hearing the sound of the music in your head before playing it?

Or have you attended a level one course and would now like to take things to the next stage?

Provisional timetable

10.30 Registration, welcome and coffee/tea

10.50 A series of explanations and exercises in reading rhythms, starting with straight forward rhythms in both simple & compound time, then moving on to more complex rhythms, including dealing with irregular time signatures and irregular grouping of notes.

11.50 Break - coffee/tea

12.10 An exploration of pitch (without rhythm), beginning with straight forward step-wise movement and quickly moving on to explore the pitching of intervals and how to locate those difficult leaps.

1.10 Lunch

2.00 Putting rhythm and pitch together, starting with standard rhythms and fairly straight forward pitch, then moving on to increasingly complex challenges.

2.50 Break - coffee/tea

3.10 Singing in parts and sharpening awareness of the expressive detail i.e. going beyond the notes

4.00 Depart

All you need to bring is a packed lunch.

Tea, coffee, juice, biscuits/cakes will be provided free of charge.

N.B. Gareth has CRB enhanced clearance.
